Really loved it!

I bought the Break The Hate sticker and love it. I put it on my cell phone. A fun sticker with a message I care about.

Holiday Gifts That Support Holocaust Education

Supporting Holocaust education is simple! This holiday season, purchase an MSHEF bracelet or our #BreakTheHate sticker, and a portion of the proceeds will be donated to the MSHEF Foundation.

Empower Through Education Book Club - Survivors Club: The True Story of a Very Young Prisoner of Auschwitz

Our third selection in the Empower Through Education Book Club is Survivors Club: The True Story of a Very Young Prisoner of Auschwitz. By Michael Bornstein and Debbie Bornstein Holinstat this New York Times bestseller is the incredible true story of Michael Bornstein—who at age 4 was one of the youngest children to be liberated from the Auschwitz concentration camp—and of his family.

This thoroughly researched and documented middle-grade nonfiction book can be worked into multiple aspects of the common core curriculum.

Purchase this book just in time for your holiday read.

SPOTLIGHT

Alyssa

Meet Alyssa, an MSHEF Youth Ambassador.

"I learned of Mark Schonwetter's inspiring story of survival at my Hebrew School and I did Journey for the Living as the focus of my Bat Mitzvah project. By sharing his experiences through the years, Mark has educated so many young people about the potential for good even in the darkest of times.

I am very excited to help promote MSHEF so Mark's firsthand account of the Holocaust can help future students know true facts while also learning important lessons from this time period."

Are you interested in joining Alyssa as an MSHEF Youth Ambassador? Are you an adult and would like to join our Ambassador program? Contact us today to learn more!

KINDNESS

Holocaust Survivors in New York Gifted with Hearing Aids by Nonprofit

The Miracle-Ear Foundation

provided nearly 100 Holocaust survivors with free hearing aids.

"We are honored to work with these community partners to provide free hearing aids to restore hearing and improve the lives of these Survivors through the gift of sound,” said Jenni Hargraves, Executive Director of the Miracle-Ear Foundation. “These hearing aids will be life-changing and allow individuals to better communicate with their families, friends, and loved ones.”

EVENTS

Book Spring Speaking Events

Is your business, school, or organization looking for a unique way to teach about anti-hate initiatives or discuss diversity, equity, and inclusion in the spring?

The daughters of Holocaust survivor Mark Schonwetter, Ann S. Arnold and Isabella S. Fiske, are available to book as speakers! They’ve traveled nationwide to speak to students and professionals about Mark’s story. His story of resilience and triumph educates and sparks meaningful conversations about corporate social responsibility and human rights.
