98-year-old Holocaust survivor receives honorary diploma

Oskar Knoblauch is a Holocaust survivor born in Leipzig, Germany in 1925. His family immigrated to Poland as the political climate in Germany was changing. In 1941, they were relocated to the Krakow Ghetto along with 15,000 other Jews in the area. After World War II, Oskar and his family immigrated to Canada. He was recently honored by Chandler High School (Chandler, AZ), bestowing on him the high school diploma he was unable to earn due to the Holocaust. The honor moved him to tears.
