SPOTLIGHT

Guy Benson

Our Co-Founders, Mark Schonwetter, Ann Arnold, and Isabella Fiske were recently interviewed on the Guy Benson Show. The show features news-making guests, a stream of Fox News stars, and perspectives from callers. Our Co-founders joined Guy in discussing Mark's survival story and the history of the MSHE Foundation. After the live airing of the interview, we received an influx of donations from listeners. Thank you Guy Benson for featuring us on your show!

Holocaust Survivor, Peace Activist, Receives Germany's Highest Civilian Honor

Holocaust survivor Irene Butter, professor emerita at the University of Michigan, received the Order of Merit of the Federal Republic of Germany. The Federal Cross of Merit is the highest tribute the nation can pay to civilians for achievements in the political, economic, social, or intellectual realm.

Irene was born in Berlin and grew up as a Jewish child in Nazi-occupied Europe. A survivor of two concentration camps she came to the US in 1945. Since the late 80's she has been teaching students about the Holocaust and the lessons she learned during those traumatic years. Her memoir, Shores Beyond Shores, details her journey.
