SPOTLIGHT

JFTL Mitzvah & JFTL Service Projects

Looking for a meaningful way to give back and honor the past?

The JFTL Mitzvah Project is a powerful opportunity for bar/bat mitzvah students to support Holocaust education in memory of Mark's 15-mile walk to safety. MSHEF Ambassador Jacob Heyderman turned his milestone into a mission—learn about his JFTL Mitzvah Project!

The JFTL Service Project is a turnkey community service project open to classrooms, scout troops, youth groups, and organizations looking to take part in a purposeful, year-round initiative rooted in remembrance and action.

IMPACT

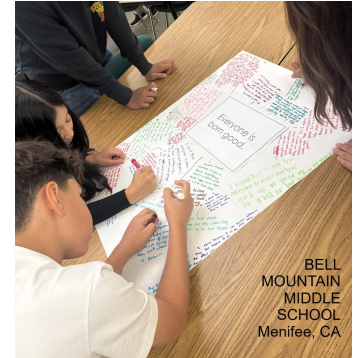

What Teachers Are Saying:

"Doing this unit while heated politics were taking over our world was a reflective and eye-opening experience for all students.

Many told me that this was the one takeaway from their 8th-grade year."
